Heroine

Sleeping with Sirens

My eyes roll back to see and then fate I breathe you in Exalt your flames Plus those are mine to come here to me We're wasting time Darling can you hear me? Heroine my sweetest sin I can't seem to get enough Pull me under Wake me up Feel the rush Morphine lover make me numb Make it so I can't get up Paper-thin till you sink in Could you be my heroine? Do you feel exposed? Let your feelings show Can I taste you? Can I replace you? I need to know Let's lose our minds Please stay with me We're wasting yeah We're wasting time Why don't you believe me? Heroine my sweetest sin I can't seem to get enough Pull me under Wake me up Feel the rush Morphine lover make me numb Make it so I can't get up Paper-thin till you sink in Could you be my heroine? It starts with the spins Yeah you got me swimming in I'm falling to pieces and I won't be whole until you let me in oh Heroine my sweetest sin I can't seem to get enough Pull me under Wake me up Feel the rush Morphine lover make me numb

Make it so I can't get up Paper-thin till you sink in Could you be my heroine?

My heroine My heroine Could you be my heroine?
