

Legends

Sleeping with Sirens

We can be legends after all.
We can be legends after all.

Do you remember being young.
The world in our hands.
Your heart in a song.
Do you remember being young.
Remember, remember..

Nothing's ever what it seems.
Forget who you are.
Forget how to dream.
I think it's time that we believe.
Remember, remember..

We can be wild, we can be free.
We can be anything in life we want to be.
We can move mountains.
We can break walls.
We can stand tall enough to fight
and never fall.

We can be legends after all.
We can be legends after all.
We can be legends after all.

Do you remember growing up.
Standing all alone.
Your back to the sun.
Do you remember growing up.
Remember, remember..

Tell me how it's gonna be.
If we win or lose.
Wear your heart on your sleeve.
I think it's time that we believe.
Remember, remember..

We can be wild, we can be free.
We can be anything in life we want to be.
We can move mountains.
We can break walls.
We can stand tall enough to fight
and never fall.

We can be legends after all.
We can be legends after all.
We can be legends after all.

We can be legends, we can be legends.
We can be legends after all.
We can be legends, we can be legends.

Stand up and shout it out,
if you want it.
Reach out and touch the sky,
cause you got it.

We'll be here forever.

Stand up and shout it out,
if you want it.
Reach out and touch the sky,
cause you got it.
We'll be here forever.

We can be wild, we can be free.
We can be anything in life we want to be.
We can move mountains.
We can break walls.
We can stand tall enough to fight
and never fall.

We can be legends after all.
We can be legends after all.
We can be legends after all.

Stand up and shout it out,
if you want it.
Reach out and touch the sky,
cause you got it.
We'll be here forever.
