

Blue Trash Mattress Fire

Sleigh Bells

I used to drink gasoline in the morning
And the middle of the day on the trampoline
Summertime dreams, Billie Jean
That left stains on the blue jeans
And the downpours came like a freight train
Filled swimming pools with acid rain
Raise hell, damage, drink
[?] spin [?]

I'll do it, I'll jump
Not for kicks, not for fun
But because this shit is too much
It's fucking me up
Enough is enough
Enough is enough

Evidence of moral detours
In the downtown holy wars
Hysterical depths of casual hatred
Taking place in everyday places
Laughing hysterically
At the comedies and the tragedies
White trash, blue flame
Blue trash, red rage

I'll do it, I'll jump
Just for kicks, just for fun
'Cause goddamn, this shit is too much
It's fucking me up
Enough is enough
Enough is enough

I used to drink gasoline in the morning

They want us to jump
Just for kicks, just for fun
Just to watch
This shit is too much
It's fucking us up
Enough is enough
Enough is enough
