Go away for awhile, cause you can't
Cause you can't see this again
Take a break from your friends if you ever
If you ever wanna see them again
Can you think for yourself just once?
You're never gonna get back home
Cause you're gonna discover
Ah-ah, alone on the telephone

Don't run away from me, baby
Just go away from me, baby
Don't run away from me, baby
Just go away from me, baby
Road to hell, road to hell, road to hell
Road to hell, road to hell, road to hell

Go away for awhile

If you can

You can be my only friend

When you're tied to the bed

Ah-ah-ah

We can learn how to begin

Take apart this verse, again

If you're so good at offense

I can say these words again

If you know how to defend

Don't run away from me, baby
Just go away from me, baby
Don't run away from me, baby
Just go away from me, baby
Road to hell, road to hell, road to hell
Road to hell, road to hell, road to hell
