You're opened yourself up this time You don't know what to do or where to go You wanted to be everything to someone you couldn't trust Is this where you want your life to go? Here you go again Walking down this path You're seen a 1000 times before Here you go again Telling yourself the same old lies You're told a 1000 times before And know you shut yourself off Closed the door to reason It's time to take a look at yourself through honest eyes Give yourself that chance Here you go again Walking down this path You're seen a 1000 times before Here you go again Telling yourself the same old lies You're told a 1000 times before
