

The first one there when I was lost,
He was there to help me out.
And all this time you tried so hard.
Not hard enough.
It's something you feel.
It'll help you understand.
I feel it beat inside my soul,
like a pounding knock at the door.
Heavy pressure in my head.
Your word remains when I'm dead.
Melody, energy, Your wisdom follows me.
When I feel I' m in need I see your truth.
It's something you feel.
It'll help you understand.
I feel it beat inside my soul, like a pounding knock at the door.
Heavy pressure in my head.
Your word remains when I'm dead.
