

Crooked

Slick Shoes

I hear those noises.
All those familiar voices.
Always disturbing in the night time.
When can i rest my head in peace and silence?
Knowing what i've done is right.
False comfort is no more.
Will i hang my head in shame?
No longer will i play this game.
This time i'll get it right.
This time i won't back down from this battle in my mind.
You try and laugh but i don't care if i please you.
Go ahead and laugh some more.
you think you're seperate, different from all the rest.
You try but you're just like us all.
False comfort is no more.
will i hang my head in shame?
No longer will i play this game.
This time i'll get it right.
This time i won't back down From this battle in my mind.
False comfort is no more.
Will i hang my head in shame?
No longer will i play this game.
This time i'll get it right.
This time i won't back down from this battle in my mind.
