

Hold On To The One

Slightly Stoopid

Why u gatta tell me like i aint no good for you?
Why u gatta tell me like its somethin i should do?
Never really know, but time will tell
Woke up in heaven, now im livin' in hell

So, hold on to the one, who will make u fell numb
Hold on to the one, cause its better than some
Hold on to the one, who will make u fell numb
Hold on to the one, cause its better than some

Since the first time that i looked into your eyes
It was a feelin, kept me wonderin inside
Feelings of lost, or maybe even confused
So much for lovin, that im willin to lose

So, hold on to the one, who will make u fell numb

Hold on to the one, cause its better than some
Hold on to the one, who will make u fell numb
Hold on to the one, cause its better than some

A little bit soft, a little bit smooth, a little bit longer now
A little bit fast, a little bit hard, till we get stronger now
I wanna to rock with me, baby
Come on and roll with my sweet darlin
I wanna to rock with me, baby
Come on and roll with my sweet darlin

So, hold on to the one, who will make u fell numb
Hold on to the one, cause its better than some
Hold on to the one, who will make u fell numb
Hold on to the one, cause its better than some
