

Leaning Post

Slim Dusty

You've been around a-playin', now do I hear you sayin'
That you still love me the most
My love you now desire, but there's a bad misfire
Don't take me for your leanin' post
When you were in the limelight, I never got the spotlight
I wasn't good enough to know
You say you're sad and sorry for causin' all the worry
And that you need me so
Well, if I believe your story and take you back and love you
I'm the boss and there's no suppose
And I hope you've learned your lesson and there'll be no more g
uessin'
Who's gonna be your leanin' post
Ah, let's hear it now
You've been around a-playin', now do I hear you sayin'
That you still love me the most
My love, you now desire, but there's a bad misfire
Don't take me for your leanin' post
When you were in the limelight, I never got the spotlight
I wasn't good enough to know
You say you're sad and sorry for causin' all the worry
And that you need me so
Well, if I believe your story and take you back and love you
I'm the boss and there's no suppose
And I hope you've learned your lesson and there'll be no more g
uessin'
Who's gonna be your leanin' post, oh yeah
Who's gonna be your leanin' post, oh yeah
Who's gonna be your leanin' post, oh yeah
