She says that I have nothing to my name So don't spread that shame on her dove She says that I have a devil in my mind A devil in my stride, all the time

All the time, all the time!

She gonna try to lock you up, I'll find you, ohahoh She gonna try to lock you up, I'll find you, ohahoh Your old lady's chase'n me with the Good Book, ohahoh But down inside, she longs for times, When she was chased like that! Alright!

She say I can't spell no good And that I dance such a fool She says that I have the devil in my mind A devil in my stride all the time

All the time, all the time!

She gonna try to lock you up, I'll find you, ohahoh She gonna try to lock you up, I'll find you, ohahoh Your old lady's chase'n me with the Good Book, ohahoh But down inside, she longs for times, When she was chased like that!

So she try hard to get a reaction Try hard to get a reaction...
