

Do you believe? Do you fade like a dream?
Let me hear you breathe, let me watch as you sleep
The sparrow's eyes promises shift into judgments
I cannot deny that you were designed for my punishments

The blood and the body control the cut so it's seamless
Show me your heart, show me the way to complete this

(Tethered)
To a scene I
(Treasure)
Can you help me?

I
(Sever)
God, it's perfect, it's (Never)
Really perfect
Now I can finally be myself 'cause I don't want to be myself

Free my severed heart, give me you, I want it
(I don't want to be myself)
Free my severed heart, give me you, I want it
(I don't want to be myself)

Free my severed heart, give me you, I want it
(I don't want to be myself)
Free my severed heart, give me you, I want it
(I don't want to be myself)

I cannot maintain a semblance of normal anymore
I'd rather feel pain than try to fit in with you anymore
I'll throw it all away like everybody else
I can finally be myself 'cause I don't want to be myself

Free my severed heart, give me you, I want it
(I don't want to be myself)
Free my severed heart, give me you, I want it
(I don't want to be myself)

Free my severed heart, give me you, I want it
(I don't want to be myself)
Free my severed heart, give me you, I want it
(I don't want to be myself)

Free my severed heart, give me you, I want it
(I don't want to be myself)
Free my severed heart, give me you, I want it
(I don't want to be myself)

Free my severed heart, give me you, I want it
(I don't want to be myself)
Free my severed heart, give me you, I want it
(I don't want to be myself)
