

Morningrise

Slowdive

I cross the field
And watch the sun go down
A million people clap
It makes me frown

Looking 'round
I see you slip away
You seem more
Beautiful than yesterday

The devil takes
My mind but I don't care
He gives me all his love
He gives me air

Don't pay it any mind
I'm losing all the time

I cross the field
And watch the sun go down
A million people clap
It makes me frown

Looking 'round
I see you slip away
You seem more
Beautiful than yesterday
