

It's good to get something from someone that you gonna trust in
And it's fine when you'll be taken for a turn and breaking new ground It's so easy to see that we drift on the sea of adjustment
And it's likely for us to forsake that we happen to drown

Is anybody here to entertain me
Anyone to take me by the hand
I wish that everybody gather and sustain me Anybody here to understand that we're addicted to the art of dissipation
And busy with behaving right or wrong
We're not bunch of cowards we're a nation
So everybody do their very best to get along

Beware of the gaps and the taps when it's late in the evening
Make sure that you've got someone to walk with and someone to talk Convince yourself daily if there's still someone left If they're leaving And beware of the moments the lonelyones when it gets dark

Is anybody here to entertain me
Anyone to take me by the hand
I wish that everybody gather and sustain me
Anybody here to understand that we're addicted to the
art of dissipation
And busy with behaving right or wrong
We're not bunch of cowards we're a nation
So everybody do their very best to get a Everybody do their very best to get a Everybody gather just to sing for a better life

Just to sing for a better life.
