I wore it out, I played along a bit and missed a hit. Iæ $\square$ | out of trace now, walked away now, alright... tried to fight, I look at emptiness, my private mess. Iæ $\square$ | out of place now, just wa lked away now, alright... gimme back the choice to win again, g imme back the voice so I can sing along with them. Iæ $\square$ | out of trace now, lost my face now, alright... wore it out, I played a long a bit, missed a hit. Iæ $\square$ | out of place now, walked away now, alright... peace is over... peace is over... peace is over...
