

Some luxury, some make-up
A long long drink to wake up from a sleep
A night that was to waste
Just another aftertaste of anger and attention
But nothing else to mention
I'm aware of what you did to me
Just another frequency

'Cause anyone could take up
Nothing else would break up
For a calling back from out of here
Just another souvenir

It's no fake it's no crime
Just a way to spend my time
It's the space in-between
So evergreen
For the sake or a dime
Just a way to spend my time
It's the space in-between
And she's the queen
So evergreen to me

Eternally suspicious
And all the favourite dishes
Quickly meaningless, so good arranged
Just another thing to change

'Cause anyone could take up
Nothing else would break up
For a calling back from out of here
Just another souvenir

It's no fake it's no crime
Just a way to spend my time
It's the space in-between
So evergreen
For the sake or a dime
Just a way to spend my time
It's the space in-between
And she's the queen
So evergreen to me
