

Neverending

Slut

I'll lend you my ears but not for long
I'm not gonna tell you that you're wrong
Not gonna stop to turn away
Just tell me your sorrows, show me your pain
But beware that for me it's all the same
None of my business anyway
Some call me diplomatic, but I know I'm antistatic
Not gonna make a single move
No need to pay attention
This isn't worth to mention, but there ain't nothing I can do
I'm gonna run away
I'm gonna run away
Just like everyday
Like I always did in my life
Give me a reason, give me a sign before I will leave it all behind
Sing me a song I'd like to hear
I will not make it on my own
And if I get lost please bring me home
Where I can softly disappear
My life's a prostitution
My love's a big confusion and I won't make it here with you
This life's a broken highway and I never did it my way
But there ain't nothing I can do
it's neverending
I've always been so self-pretending
Whatever I've been in
I'm gonna run away
I'm gonna run away
Just like everyday
Like I always did in my life
I'm gonna run away
Keep on running away
Just like everyday
Just like I always did in my life I keep on running away
