

Two times a day
See no reason for this anyway
A minute or two
Penetrated and faded by you
Tender and brief
Superficial and ready to leave
Dejected and late
So extinguished, so tired to wait

Covered again
Everytime when
Sun turns to rain
But it's all the same

Covered again
Everytime when
Sun turns to rain
But it's all the same
It's all the same

Two times a day
It's no season for this anyway
A minute or two
Penetrated and faded by you
Dejected and late
So extinguished, so tired to wait
We're jaded so far
Turn the lights off and get in the car

Covered again
Everytime when
Sun turns to rain
But it's all the same
It's all the same
