

Tomorrow Will Be Mine

Slut

bring me wine and pass me rum and soda the cheapest coca cola and chop me one more line make me drunk and give me one more fag to take a final drag - tomorrow will be mine tonight i'm gonna listen to the body of mine cause i lived in oblivion for a pretty long time i lived in oblivion for a pretty long time i lived in oblivion for a pity - pretty long - long time

tell my friends and tell my younger brother tell my dad and tell my mother that i still walk the line give a hug to all my mates and neighbours and do me one last favour: bring me some more wine tonight i'm gonna travel to the navel of life i'll be lost i'll be found in every corner of this town lost and found in every corner of this town lost and found in every corner of this goddamn town this is what i got liquor in my blood time to ease the pain with liquor in my veins this is how it feels to get old tonight i gotta listen to the body of mine i'll be lost i'll be found on every corner of this town lost and found on every corner of this town all i ever got is liquor in my blood blisters on the hands and the soul time to realize i'm closing down my eyes this is what it's like to get old

all i ever got is liquor in my blood
blisters on the hands and the soul
