

No one caught my falling two times in a year
My eyes keep on calling for something that ain't here
No one stopped the virus from gnawing all of me
And even if I tried it, it was just for sympathy

No one ever felt this pain
I think this time it's not the same
Perhaps it's just because I care
I'm still bleeding but no one is aware
I'm still bleeding but no one even cares

No one caught that falling two times in a year
My eyes keep on calling for something that ain't here
No one stopped the virus from gnawing all of me
And even if I tried it, it was just for sympathy

No one ever felt this pain
I think this time it's not the same
Perhaps it's just because I care
I'm still bleeding but no one is aware
I'm still bleeding but no one even cares
