

Wishes

Slut

Think I know it's much too late
I wish I wasn't so afraid
Going under slowly day by day

Think it's darker than before
Think I'm closer to the floor
Now the street so cold as cold as you

I wish you all the best, girl
'Cause it's me who has to stay
I wish you all the best, girl
Now it's you to fade away
I wish it was a test, girl
A little kiss, a small hello
You're better than the rest, girl
But sometimes wishes melt away like falling snow

Think I know it's much too late
Wish I wasn't so afraid
Going under slowly day by day

I wish you all the best, girl
'Cause it's me who has to stay
I wish you all the best, girl
Now it's you to fade away
I wish it was a test, girl
A little kiss, a small hello
You're better than the rest, girl
But sometimes wishes melt away

I wish you all the best, girl
'Cause it's me who has to stay
I wish you all the best, girl
Now it's you to fade away
I wish it was a test, girl
A little kiss, a small hello
You're better than the rest, girl
But sometimes wishes melt away like falling snow
