Rene

Small Faces

There she is parading on the quayside You can find her every night Ah, waiting for a stevedore from Tyne side Why it's Rene, the docker's delight

Well, if you just got off an oil tanker And you've got the readies in the bin Just make your way down to The Crown and Anchor Ask for Rene and you'll be well in

She's Rene, the docker's delight and a ship's in every night Romping with a stoker from the coast of Kuala Lumpur

Love is like an 'ole in the wall A line-up in the warehouse no trouble at all If you can spare the money, you'll have a ball She'll have your oars out

Well, there's a kid of every shape and color Safely hid in coal-sheds double-locked Where it's been said that Rene is the mother I wonder well, there you go

She's Rene, the docker's delight and a ship's in every night Groping witha stoker from the coast of Kuala Lumpur
