

A Friend Like You

Smash Into Pieces

It's way to late and I'm awake
You're on my mind
I'm writing down what I would say
If we would meet sometime again
Apologize for everything I have done

Cause I knew you more than most
I turned, you closed
A side that was beautiful

I'm saying I'm sorry
Saying it's not okay
Tell me how
I could use a friend like you
I'm saying I miss you
Never felt so ashamed
Right now
I could use a friend like you

My thoughts were clouded at the time
Or did I think at all
What I stole belonged to you
I know that you are not the same
Since you found out
And I'm the one to blame

Cause I knew you more than most
I turned, you closed
A side that was beautiful

I'm saying I'm sorry
Saying it's not ok
Tell me how
I could use a friend like you
I'm saying I miss you
Never felt so ashamed
Right now
I could use a friend like you

All the scars I gave to you
Only time can take away
And like the love I stole from you
We slipped away from each other
Wish for other ways to make it up to you
And start over new

I'm saying I'm sorry
Saying it's not ok
Tell me how
I could use a friend like you
I'm saying I'm sorry
Saying it's not ok
Tell me how
I could use a friend like you
I'm saying I miss you
Never felt so ashamed
Right now

I could use a friend like you
