For Martha

The Smashing Pumpkins

Whenever I run to you lost one It's never done
Just hanging on

Just past has let me be Returning as if dream Shattered as belief

If you have to go don't say goodbye

If you have to go don't you cry

If you have to go I will get by

Someday I'll follow you and see you on the other side

But for the grace of love I'd will the meaning of Heaven from above

Your picture out of time Left aching in my mind Shadows kept alive

If you have to go don't say goodbye
If you have to go don't you cry
If you have to go I will get by
I will follow you and see you on the other side

But for the grace of love I'd will the meaning of Heaven from above

Long horses we are born Creatures more than torn Mourning our way home
