

Medellia Of The Gray Skies

The Smashing Pumpkins

You're an empty promise, you're an easy chair you're the gods forces struck down somewhere you're a secret noticed, you're a mystery sky you're a wish floated up to the night medellia of my eyes, you're the emptiness of I you're the reason that I write
and if I could, I'd throw away this world I'd dress you all in pearls I'd give you what you wanted you're all I notice in a crowded room your vacant motives unmoved, revealed medellia of my eyes, you're the emptiness of I you're the reason that I drive
and if I just could be anything for you just anyone at all anything that mattered, washed out you're the silly reasons in a goldfish laugh you're the ageless seasons at rest at last
