

Meladori Magpie

The Smashing Pumpkins

And on her doorstep
I saw that I was blind
I'd forsaken
What was mine

What had mattered
Mattered little now
We had shattered
Apart somehow

Ooh
I can't help but stay the same
I'll remain true to my name

Time to get up
And take the long walk home
For the first time
I go alone

Do you remember
When we first met?
Chasing down the alleyways
Behind my dad's

Ooh
I can't help but stay the same
I remain true to the name
Of lovers past
Good enough to lose
Good enough to choose you, too

Ooh
I can't help but stay the same
Ooh
I remain true to the name
Of lovers past
Good enough to lose
Good enough to choose you, too
