Meladori Magpie

The Smashing Pumpkins

And on her doorstep
I saw that I was blind
I'd forsaken
What was mine

What had mattered Mattered little now We had shattered Apart somehow

Ooh

I can't help but stay the same
I'll remain true to my name

Time to get up
And take the long walk home
For the first time
I go alone

Do you remember When we first met? Chasing down the alleyways Behind my dad's

Ooh

I can't help but stay the same I remain true to the name Of lovers past Good enough to lose Good enough to choose you, too

Ooh

I can't help but stay the same Ooh I remain true to the name Of lovers past Good enough to lose Good enough to choose you, too
