The Smashing Pumpkins

I feel alright,
I feel all right tonight.
And everywhere I go it's shining bright
Alright, Alright, all right
alright,
alright, all right

Love can dust you easy, as you know and dust must make you feel slow Well, you'll shake to please them, and you'll go I know, I know you'll go

Lover, you're strange
Lover, you're strange
Lover, you're strange to me

I feel alright,
I feel alright tonight.
And everywhere I go it's shining bright
alright,
alright, all right
alright,
alright, all right

"Fast" is in the Eden of your soul Winds that carry, as they're sewn "Down"'s the every feeling that I've known in tow, it's in tow

Lover, you're strange
Lover, you're stange
Lover, you're strange to me

and what do you want me to do it's all gone mad and what do you want me to say I'm lost like you are

I feel all right,
I feel alright tonight.
And everywhere I go it's shining bright.
Alright,
alright, all right
alright,
alright, all right
