

Once In A While

The Smashing Pumpkins

Horses run
Once in a while for you

The shades will draw
Once in a while for you

Destiny will hide the sense of your time
Once in a while
Once in a while for you

The soldiers will fall
Once in a while for you

The shades will crawl
Once in a while for you

You'll take the walls
I will take the new ring

Once in a while
Once in a while it's you
Once in a while it's you

Once in a while
You'll make it on your own
You'll make it so alone
Feel so alone

You'll try to care
Once in a while for me
And I will be there
Once in a while
Once in a while for you
Once in a while for you
Once in a while for you
