

Alone

Smile Empty Soul

Step down on the shell of me
I'm not worth the air i breathe
Clean the day of everything
Wash myself of self-esteem

And I am alone, but holding on, to all that i've know
My hero's gone, and I am alone

An empty soul full of fear
A fallen un-noticed tear
I speak out but no one hears
And slowly I disappear

And I am alone, but holding on, to all that i've know
My hero's gone, and I am alone

And I am alone, but holding on, to all that i've know
My hero's gone, and I am alone
