

Balance

Smile Empty Soul

All the hate it brings me down
Everything's a waste
Get so lost I get so drown
I still can't find my place

I'm bleeding and running out
I'm bleeding and running out
Pick me up when I fall down
Pull me down when I'm too high now
Carry me when I'm so drunk I just can't walk away
I need you to balance me out

The tears are good, the smile faint
I'm holding in too much
I need your tender hand to paint
The feeling and the touch

I'm bleeding and running out
I'm bleeding and running out
Pick me up when I fall down
Pull me down when I'm too high now
Carry me when I'm so drunk I just can't walk away
I need you to balance me out

I always knew that I would find
Someone like you to make me right
So make me right

I'm bleeding and running out
I'm bleeding and running out
Pick me up when I fall down
Pull me down when I'm too high now
Carry me when I'm so drunk I just can't walk away
I need you to balance me out
I need you to balance me out
