

Black and Blue

Smile Empty Soul

You're crossing over
Fall to the weakness
That grows inside you
But you don't see it
Time to discover
Where is the deepest
How dark is nothing
When you believe it

I don't understand how you
Look right through it, lately
It gets the better of you

Black and blue
You stare into the void
Seems like it's ignorant
Looks like it's innocent
But it gets the better of you

You hear it calling you know the season
Better be careful
It's worth repeating
Your life is empty
For no good reason
Pick up the pieces
And start believing

I don't understand how you
Look right through it, lately
It gets the better of you

Black and blue
You stare into the void
Seems like it's ignorant
Looks like it's innocent
But it gets the better of you

Black and blue
You buy into the noise
Seems like it gives a shit
Looks like it's innocent
But it gets the better of you

Losing ground
Losing ground

Black and blue
You stare into the void
Seems like it's ignorant
Looks like it's innocent
But it gets the better of you

Black and blue
You buy into the noise
Looks like it's innocent

Black and blue
Black and blue
