Some days are better, they're better than others can't run forever, you're pushing me under what a way to live my life i'm hiding from the battles i don't want to fight what i've become

And now it's going grey all the lines are blurring and decayed i can't recall exactly who's to blame.... anymore

Is it me or is it you , something isn't right of all the things that we could do we just wanna fight someday i will find the courage to embrace you someday i will find the strength to erase you

Some days i think i'm nothing without you sometimes i wish that i could just kill you what a way we live our lives it's hard to breathe it feels like i'm infected by my dad's disease

And now it's going grey and you're the one i chose to feed me pain and i'm the one you bring home so ashamed....through their eye s

And i see myself in heaven if i can free myself from this hell
