

Head down as I go about my day
Cry out would it matter anyway?

Tell you again, tell you again
How I've lost myself in them
Tell you again, tell you again
How I've lost myself in them

I don't feel, I don't feel anymore
Nothing's real
Nothing's stirring in my soul
Sink down and I hope that I can swim
Fight now or they'll turn me into
Turn me into them

Stay calm as the water fills this room
Why run, when there's nothing left to lose?

Tell you again, tell you again
How I've lost myself in them
Tell you again, tell you again
How I've lost myself in them

I don't feel, I don't feel anymore
Nothing's real
Nothing's stirring in my soul
Sink down and I hope that I can swim
Fight now or they'll turn me into
Turn me into them

Don't spin me around again
Don't spin me around again
Don't spin me around I'm swimming
Right back to the shore

Don't drag me around again
Don't drag me around again
Don't drag me around this place no more

I don't feel, I don't feel anymore
Nothing's real
Nothing's stirring in my soul

I don't feel, I don't feel anymore
Nothing's real
Nothing's stirring in my soul
Sink down and I hope that I can swim
Fight now or they'll turn me into
Turn me into them

Turn me into them
Turn me into them
