To the Ground

Smile Empty Soul

You are my light you are my fire
The only one that's not a lier
You get me through all of my days
You keep me numb to the pain

When I'm lonely
When I'm calling out
Scream for a friend
You always hear a sound
Keep me happy
Keep me happy now
When all the world around
Crumbles to the ground
Crumbles to the ground

You keep my calm when I'm not fine
You take the pressure off my mind
And even though I don't see clear
I feel safe cause you're here

When I'm lonely
When I'm calling out
Scream for a friend
You always hear a sound
Keep me happy
Keep me happy now
When all the world around
Crumbles to the ground
Crumbles to the ground

Am I too fucked up
To really see (to really see)
You're the best friend that's killing me (that's killing me)

You get me through all of my days
You keep me numb to the pain

When I'm lonely
When I'm calling out
Scream for a friend
You always hear a sound
Keep me happy
Keep me happy now
When all the world around
Crumbles to the ground
Crumbles to the ground
Crumbles to the ground
Crumbles to the ground
