

Warning

Smile Empty Soul

Don't put your faith into a word they say
Manipulated on some puppet strings
Do you see now?
Are you finally waking up?

Don't let them take away your everything
No dream or memory or make-believe
Do you see now?
Are you finally waking up?

Brick by brick
Lay the mortar down
Ribbled walls of your prison cell
There is no key in this shit

Warning the puzzled you were swarming
I can't control my heartache
The pain I keep ignoring
I'm leaving here before the sun comes up
Say goodbye...
Just shut your fuckin' mouth and let me go
Don't ask why

This place is poison to your mental state
You're building walls to keep your story straight
Do you see now?
Are you finally waking up?

So now I'm waiting for an ending date
Nobody's free and no one is safe
Do you see now?
Are you finally waking up?

Brick by brick
Lay the mortar down
Ribbled walls of your prison cell
There is no key in this shit

Warning the puzzled you were swarming
I can't control my heartache
The pain I keep ignoring
I'm leaving here before the sun comes up
Say goodbye...
Just shut your fuckin' mouth and let me go
Don't ask why

So sleep through all of this
But the dream you never left
Is only in your mind...

Warning the puzzled you were swarming
I can't control my heartache
The pain I keep ignoring
I'm leaving here before the sun comes up
Say goodbye...
I'm buried underneath the heavy weight of your lies
So shut your fuckin' mouth and let me go

Don't ask why
