Flying around The houses at night Flying alone

A teenage spaceship I was a teenage spaceship Landing at night

I was beautiful with all my lights Loomed so large on the horizon So large, people thought my windows were stars

So large on the horizon People thought my windows were stars A teenage spaceship, a teenage spaceship

And I swore I'd never lay like a log Bark like a dog I was a teenage smog Sewn to the sky