

I Understand

Smokie Norful

Oh, oh
Sometimes I feel like giving up
Seems like my best, it just ain't good enough
I feel like I've done all that I can do
Do you see, do you care, Lord
All about what I'm goin' through?

And then He said, one more day, yeah
Oh, just one more step
He says, I'm preparing you, oh, for Myself
And when you can't hear My voice, oh, trust My plan
I am the Lord, I see you, and, yes, I understand

Sometimes I feel like I'm all alone
I'm just like a stranger so far from home
I feel like I've done all that I can do
Oh, please, Lord, give me strength
I'm just tryin' to make it through
Hey, yeah

(One more day) One more step, yeah
(One more step) God says, I'm preparing you, oh, for Myself
And when you can't hear My voice
(Can't hear My voice) Oh, trust My plan
I am the Lord, I see you, and, yes, I understand

He knows just how much you can bear
And in the time of trouble He promised
He would always be there
Yeah, I understand (I understand)
The Lord is telling you, yes, I understand
Oh, I am the Lord, I see you, and, yes, I understand

He says, I am the Lord and I changeth not
And I won't forget nor have I forgot
And everything works according to My plan
I am God, trust Me, I got the whole world in My hands

Oh, one more day, hey, hey
Oh, I'm preparing you, oh,
I'm getting you ready, yeah, for Myself
And when you can't hear My voice,
Oh, don't worry about it
Just trust me enough to know I've got the master plan

I am the Lord, I see everything you're going through, yes
Every burden, every trial, every tribulation, yeah
And I understand, I understand, I understand
I am the Lord, I see what you're goin' through,
And, oh, I understand
