

Broken Hearts

Smokie

I'm just nother guy on an empty road
Waiting patiently for someone
I don't know
I'm just another face in a
Crowded room
Got that feeling that they're
Watching me
But they look straight through

Broken hearts don't ever lie
You can push and shove
'Til you've had enough
'Til the tears all run dry
Broken hearts don't ever lie
No matter what the future holds
They say that broken hearts
Don't ever lie

It's just another day in a
Lonely year
A million miles from somewhere
A million miles from here
It's just another place in a
Different time
Alone here with the memory
Of a past I left behind

Broken hearts don't ever lie
You can push and shove
'Til you've had enough
'Til the tears all run dry
Broken hearts don't ever lie
No matter what the future holds
They say that broken hearts
Don't ever lie

I'm just another guy
On an empty road
A million miles from somewhere
Get a million miles to go

Broken hearts don't ever lie
You can push and shove
'Til you've had enough
'Til the tears all run dry
Broken hearts don't ever lie
No matter what the future holds
They say that broken hearts
Don't ever lie
