

Coming Home Tonight

Smokie

Waiting in a lonely home
A fire burning low A thousand miles between us god knows, I had to go But distance can be overcome
In the beating of a heart
Just put your arms around yourself Believe I'm not that far Remember that I told you That I'd prove my love is true and if you wait a little longer I'll be coming home to you Tonight, when all the lights go down tonight, we'll dream about the love we've found tonight, when all the lights are low We'll hide away in yesterday and I won't have to go A year can seem a lifetime to leave someone like you So many sleepless nights I've spent Reaching out for you
The price of dedication is everything I own But there is someone that I can't give up without you, why go on?
Tonight, when all the lights go down...
Tonight, when all the lights go down...
