

Lyin In The Arms Of The One You Love

Smokie

This life has taken me so far and so many roads I've had to choose Some win, some lose this life has been a gamble, I held my cards close to my chest I've played the part Somehow the mists of time have washed all over me the comfort of your arms is where I need to be (Cause) when you're lyin' in the arms of the one you love
And you got your faith in God above
And you feel like you're riding on the wind When you're lyin in the arms of the one you love and you know it's good from the stars above Ooh, that's love
I get so tired of dreamin where is the fire that burned inside With all it's pride the flame became a candle so fragile with the autumn wind the need to win
Somehow the sands of time weigh heavy over me Wrapped in your lovin arms is where I'd rather be (Cause) when you're lyin' in the arms.
