

Shy Guy

Smokie

When you look my way girl I'd like to say that I've found somebody to love But how can I tell you that I do you know it's true Nearly all the time girl you're on my mind
And I can't stop thinking of you I wish there was something I could do what can I do

You're breaking me up You're bringing me down Sometimes I see no sense in hanging around though it should be easy, just to talk to you and I know there's nothin' to lose But you're somethin' special in my eyes

In my eyes

You're breaking me up...

Like I said before, you know I love you more Every time I see your face Better take my chance, before it's too late It's too late

You're breaking me up...
