Till You Follow Me

I'll be waiting till you follow me you gabe your loving so honestly and I will love you, baby, endlessly when yo come back, wait and see When you left me I cried all the night I didn#t even put up a fight but, you know, my darling, you were right I never saw your guiding light those other girls in town they try to pin me down Can't compare to your memory Now I can't stand another day sat ba the phone so please come home, cos I'm so alone I'll be waiting till you follow me you gave you loving so honestly And I will love you, baby, endlessly When you come back, wait and see when you come back, wait an see to me when you come back, wait and see when you come back when you come back