

Why

Smokie

Can you hear me when I call your name
Or was it the wind that took it away
And I still feel your every move
I die and cry with every thought of you

When I look there's no one there
Do you know how much I really care

So why we're so rich in love
Maybe we're the only ones
No rights no wrongs
Don't try it was meant to be
We'll never be the lonely ones
And I'll build a better world for you
And me

Somedays I can't make it through Somedays I never really wanted to
And I'm still searching but it's been
So long
I'm pretending that there's nothing wrong
In any heart you know you'll always be
The only love that lives inside of me

So why we're so rich in love
Maybe we're the only ones
No rights no wrongs
Don't try it was meant to be
We'll never be the lonely ones
And I'll build a better world for you
And me

Need you so I won't let it go
Need you so

In my memory you'll always be
My heart and soul my dream
My destiny

So why we're so rich in love
Maybe we're the only ones
No rights no wrongs
Don't try it was meant to be
We'll never be the lonely ones
And I'll build a better world for you
And me
