

Gotta Know Right Now

Smoking Popes

If I told you that I really, really liked you a lot
I've wanted to for a long, long time but I never had the guts

I wonder what you would say
I just can't go on this way
I gotta know right now
Today

I call your name from the window of my car as I drive
I wanna do something half insane to prove to you that I'm alive

As I walk by your house for the third time tonight
And I stand in your drive way hypnotized by your bedroom light

I gotta know right now
I gotta know right now
