

Moms Are the Bomb

Smosh

Hey, Mom, You're the bomb for giving us a home.
And not grounding me for nudes you found on my phone.
I'm so glad Dad impregnated you.
And nine months later I burst out of your womb.

I remember when I was eight.
my life was going great.
My sister loved snapple there was no debate.
thought it would be funny to play a sweet prank.
Take the plastic of the cap and put it in her drink.
And when she sipped it I saw her start to choke.
I couldn't foresee it'd get caught in her throat.
Her birthday was ruined because of my stupid mistake.
She never drank snapple again and I got all her cake.
Thanks, Mom, for stepping up and saving the day. (you rock)
I didn't want you to find out this way. (love you)
Hey, Mom I did something, That wasn't that cool.
So now I gotta follow that Mother's Day Rule.

And when I was fifteen I messed up again.
Trying to impress some girls with my friends.
See, I understand the ladies.
And here was the scoop.
Hot girls can't resist the sight of burning poop.
so I found a dog lured him up the steps.
Tried to feed him X-Lax.
But he wouldn't ingest,
But I didn't stress out I just dealt with the glitches.
I knew what I had to do.
To impress these bitches.
But the fire kept spreading.
it wouldn't stay put.
So my Mama had to step the crap out with her foot.
Hey, Mom, I did something that wasn't that cool.
So now I gotta follow that Mother's Day Rule.

Sorry we hid so many things from you years ago
but here's a couple things you probably should know
I watched porn on the computer when I told you I never did put a sandwich in the vcr when I was a little kid
I punched a hole in the wall and hid it with a poster tried to cook a pizza in the mother flippin toaster
thru a big ass party every time you where away plied to a hot neighbour and told her I was gay and my fish might of died because I over fed and I might of done some stuff with a girl in your bed yea
