

Forgotten

Snak the Ripper

Yeah this lifes a trip,
You can go from ain't having shit,
To makin' the grip.
Enemies stay close,
Only to take your spot when you slip,
Shave some hundos off of you not,
Homie watching you pick.
To keep your company,
'cuz nobody want to work,
But everybody wanna' live their lifes comfortably.
They all dreamin' of the finer things,
Designer clothes and diamond rings,
wont last long, like the kind of pleasure a vagina brings.
Gotta' stick to your own homie,
Watch for your dictions,
Sick with no home somewhere lost in the distance.
You can get what you want,
Just practice persistance,
You're the only person in controlling your existance.
So make every minute count,
When in doubt,
When They say you won't amount,
Shut 'em out,
Show 'em what you're all about.
Live your life,
Fall in love,
Forget about your sorrow 'cuz,
Everything you have right now could be all gone tomorow 'cuz

Changes come time moves on,
The clock is never stoppin'
Don't pay attention to the bullshit these people talkin'
One day you're on top but then suddenly your shit ain't poppin'
People love you one day but by sunday you're forgotten.

Changes come time moves on,
The clock is never stoppin'
Don't pay attention to the bullshit these people talkin'
One day you're on top but then suddenly your shit ain't poppin'
People love you one day but by sunday you're forgotten.

It's when you're goin' through hurts,
Shit could be worse,
Embrace the air you,
Breathe it evenly,
Excel and disperse.
Concentrate on nothin',
Soak up the beat and the verse,
Always check your shoulder homie you cant see in reverse.
Remeber money comes and goes,
So even when the funds are low,
Try to keep above the surface,
Fightin' with the undertoe.
Life is wonderful,
Why you find that hard to believe?
You get your arm broken trying to wear your heart on your sleeve.
Don't make your decisions only based on emotions,

Keep your mouth shut homie,
And your ears wide open.
Never look back,
Trying to make a positive impression,
Stop stressin',
Life's a prize that lies in your possession.
Don't lie,
Aggression is a sign of the weak,
Jealousy the same listen to the words that I speak.
People change, turn quick to burn you with the stake,
I just wrote this shit,
So maybe you could learn from my mistakes man.

Changes come time moves on,
The clock is never stoppin'
Don't pay attention to the bullshit these people talkin'
One day you're on top but then suddenly your shit ain't poppin'
People love you one day but by sunday you're forgotten.

Changes come time moves on,
The clock is never stoppin'
Don't pay attention to the bullshit these people talkin'
One day you're on top but then suddenly your shit ain't poppin'
People love you one day but by sunday you're forgotten.

I say people love you one day but by sunday you're forgotten,
I say people love you one day but by sunday you're forgotten,
I say people love you one day but by sunday you're forgotten
I say people love you one day ...
