

Most of the day I just lay around on the rug
Leaving a trail of drool like the ass on a slug
Each task is enough to make me hate the next
I can barely whack off let alone have sex
My breakfast, microwave popcorn and porn
My underwear's worn and stained and torn
Never give my seat up man
I don't care about your baby lady I'm too lazy to stand
Constantly not really doing shit
My jobs hunting me id rather do stupid shit
Don't step foot in the rain
Back pain for a little change
Its a strange concept to explain
To a guy like me, a sloth by far
Legally change my name to Snak the tar
Too lazy to walk the block up to your yard
Too lazy to touch my fucking cock when it's hard
Too lazy to write rhymes or even a hook
Too lazy to talk so I'mma sit silent with my hand on my cock
Too lazy to wipe my ass after a crap
Just sit down get high and let time fly
Yo young Snak never was a happy camper
Smelling like them filthy panties in your fucking hamper
When I was 15 I still wore a pamper
Now I'm 26 I'm taking shits on a sampler
I got chubby tits from McDicks and potato chips
I'm too lazy to exfoliate my zits
I'm pretty bad with miniscule tasks
Like brushing my chaps and cleaning the crack of my ass
Don't hold no doors to impress those whores
Pubes grow thick don't use pit stick
No nutritional intake got me fat and sick
Honey in the bubble bath
Big sipping the syrup
Hella mistakes I'm a real bad smeller
Too lazy to rap to beats or even a Capella
Too lazy to write rhymes or even a hook
Too lazy to talk so I'mma sit silent with my hand on my cock
Too lazy to wipe my ass after a crap
Just sit down get high and let time fly
