

That's Fine

Snak the Ripper

Yeah, from the heart baby
Yeah, I ain't gotta lie
I ain't gonna cry
I ain't gonna see you anymore and that's fine
You can do your thing girl and I'mma do mine
All I wanna know is why you wasted all my time

Yeah, it started with kisses in the morning, wifey material
Lately you lookin' at me like I pissed in your cereal
It's hard to think are we actually true?
Cause every time you said that bullshit
I knew I didn't love you but I said it anyway
Not because I meant it, but because I wanted to get laid
And I know how you girls play, so my emotions
Ain't available to be tempered with no notions
Of me in a state of relationship, why

I ain't gonna cry
I ain't gonna see you anymore and that's fine
You can do your thing girl and I'mma do mine
All I wanna know is why you wasted all my time

I ain't gotta lie
I ain't gonna cry
I ain't gonna see you anymore and that's fine
You can do your thing girl and I'mma do mine
All I wanna know is why you wasted all my time

Yeah, as time went on things got worse
Words got flipped like birds, all you did was curse
I knew this shit would never last,
I knew another dude would get that ass
I just didn't think it would be that fast
But hey, if that's the way you wanna play that's fine
But don't expect me to be so quick to give up what's mine
I rather take my time to find a girl twice as fine
You don't care that I rhyme
I'll leave it up to you to lie, why

I ain't gonna cry
I ain't gonna see you anymore and that's fine
You can do your thing girl and I'mma do mine
All I wanna know is why you wasted all my time

I ain't gotta lie
I ain't gonna cry
I ain't gonna see you anymore and that's fine
You can do your thing girl and I'mma do mine
All I wanna know is why you wasted all my time

Every once in a while I picture your smile
To remind myself why girls like you ain't ever worth while No regrets, I won't forget, just know I'm as happy as it gets Next time you staring at my profile on the Internet
I bet you thought that I would fall apart
Telling your friends I took it hard, didn't even break my heart
We both grown, delete your number out my phone

Cause the way I'm feeling now I just wanna be alone, yeah

I ain't gonna cry

I ain't gonna see you anymore and that's fine

You can do your thing girl and I'mma do mine

All I wanna know is why you wasted all my time

I ain't gotta lie

I ain't gonna cry

I ain't gonna see you anymore and that's fine

You can do your thing girl and I'mma do mine

All I wanna know is why you wasted all my time
