

When She's High

Snak the Ripper

Snak you dirty motherfucker

Damn you looking fine girl
Just tell me what is on your mind girl
Your lips are all stained red wine girl
I like the way you cutting up them lines girl
Now tell me anything just pour yourself a drink
You got that filth like the dishes in the sink
Just roll that weed and baby time to touch the sky
Dont need to tell me why

(Hook)

She only loves me when shes high
Yeah, when shes high
Yeah, she only loves me when shes high
So high
Just you and a i on that baby gettin' high

There you go baby no need to be stressed
We can get higher than the bottom of your dress
Tomorrow you gon' hate me so tonight i feel blessed
You talking at my face while im staring at your breasts
Dont worry about other bitches cause your loving is the best
Hotter than the oven, tuggin me before sex
Shots of tequilla, im feelin you good
I'mma holdin' your hair back when you're ready to spuke
Something about the way that you move
I can wave in the oceans, skin so smooth
Touchin me, so deep in the groove
Fuckin' me like you got something to prove
Know you only thing what you saying cause you high
You can play with my emotions all you like you're so high
Just the turn the lights slow and light me a cigarette

(Hook)

She only loves me when shes high
Yeah, when shes high

So high
Just you and a i on that baby gettin' high

And expand your mind
