

And it stretches out again
And it seems I didn't win
I think I'll rest a while
So nice here on the tiles
The lights come washing in

I see you there over me
Shining your new trophy

I'm a casualty of you
Just a casualty of you
Opportunity for me to prove again how easily you just
Want you to stay with me
More than would die to be, your casualty

Your cast is setting well
At least I lived to tell
All the future casualties
The line starts after me

I'm a casualty of you
Just a casualty of you
Opportunity for me to prove again how easily you just
Want you to stay with me
More than would die to be, your casualty

You turn me on
You turn me on and on and on and on and on and on...
You turn me on
You turn me on and on and on and on and on and on...
You turn me on
Yeah you turn me, mmm you turn me
